FRIDAY (2/7):
13th Documentary-
Siemens Hall 108 11-1pm

This film explores the "intersection of race, justice, and mass incarceration in the United States;" it is titled after the Thirteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, adopted in 1865, which abolished slavery throughout the United States and ended involuntary servitude except as a punishment for conviction of a crime.

This event is wheelchair accessible. Persons who wish to request disability-related accommodations, including sign-language interpreters or more information contact: Club@humboldt.edu or call 707-826-3776. Please request accomodations at least two weeks prior to the event.
